Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of radio scripts from five different local broadcasting programs, airing in New York City or in California's San Joaquin Valley. Three of the programs were sponsored and hosted by Dr. Harry Morgan, dentist.

Voices of Yesterday aired locally in the New York City broadcasting market. The program was based around the spoken word recordings of famous persons collected by recordist G. Robert Vincent. Each episode was a playlet about a famous person, that culminated in the playback of Vincent's recording of their voice. Series One consists of 54 scripts from the program.

The Friendly Circle was a radio variety program sponsored and hosted by Dr. Harry Morgan, dentist. Series 2 consists of 2 scripts from the program.

Trail to Happiness was a radio self-help program sponsored and hosted by Dr. Harry Morgan, dentist. Series 3 consists of 42 scripts from the program.

I Am An American was a radio quiz program in which listeners were asked questions about a famous figure in American history. Series 4 consists of scripts and question and answer sheets from 39 of the programs.

America--Year by Year was a radio educational program sponsored by Dr. Harry Morgan, dentist. Each episode of the daily program discussed a single year of American history, with episodes running consecutively from 1790 to 1902. Series 5 consists of 106 scripts from the program.

Collection Arrangement

The collection is arranged in 5 series:

- Series 1: Voices of Yesterday, 1938-1941
- Series 2: The Friendly Circle, 1940
- Series 3: Trail to Happiness, 1941
