Summary: Collection of more than 500 audio recordings, plus digital audio files, video recordings, film, photographs, papers, and ephemera documenting the history of the Caffè Lena coffeehouse, a folk music club and theater in Saratoga Springs, New York, founded by Lena Spencer and Bill Spencer in 1960. The collection includes a large number of live concert performance recordings by folk musicians and singer-songwriters, as well as some theater, storytelling, and poetry performances. The collection also includes folk music radio programs produced from Caffè Lena concerts by Robert Durand and others. Some materials were gathered by Jocelyn Arem while conducting research on the history of Caffè Lena, and the collection includes drafts and page proofs of Arem's book, Caffè Lena: Inside America's Legendary Folk Music Coffeehouse (2013).

Provenance

Caffè Lena Board of Directors; 2009, 2010, 2013.

Processing History

The Caffè Lena collection was processed by Marcia K. Segal. The original order and the item titles have been revised slightly, to normalize the arrangement of materials and the titles. The donor's original documentation, with original file names and titles, is available upon request to the American Folklife Center Reference staff.

Biographical Note

Lena Spencer (born Pasqualina Rosa Nargi, on January 4, 1923) owned and operated Caffè Lena from its inception in 1960 until her untimely death in 1989. Before she co-founded Caffè Lena in 1960 with her then-husband Bill Spencer, she gained experience that would bear fruit during her long years at Caffè Lena as both owner and jack of all trades: she waited tables at her father's Italian restaurant, performed with an amateur theater group, and worked at a radio station. Over the years she built a reputation for the Caffè as the place for serious folk artists to play. The Caffè had a loyal following over the years, who periodically helped raise funds to keep the business open. Despite her passing, the Caffè has continued to be a destination venue for folk music artists and fans of folk music: "good folk since 1960."

Scope and Content

Collection of more than 500 audio recordings, plus digital audio files, video recordings, film, photographs, papers, and ephemera documenting the history of the Caffè Lena coffeehouse, a folk music club and theater in Saratoga Springs, New York, founded by Lena Spencer and Bill Spencer in 1960. Container	Contents
BOX 28	Three t-shirts, 1990, circa 2000s Two t-shirts date from circa 1990: a small red t-shirt and an x-large white t-shirt, both with an image in black of Lena Spencer and her Siamese cat, Sasha. These are accompanied by a letter from Dirk Westervelt, explaining the history of the t-shirts (as a fundraiser to keep Caffè Lena in business after Lena's death). The third t-shirt is large, in black with a colorful design on the back depicting the Caffè Lena building front and the motto "good folk since 1960." The front of the t-shirt has a smaller design, in white with black letters: "Lunch at the Ritz Studios / Beekman Street Galleries."
